

Ivan Crnčec

State Secretary, Ministry of Justice, Public Administration and Digital Transformation

Ivan Crnčec is a State Secretary in the Ministry of Justice, Public Administration and Digital Transformation. Previously he has obtained several high positions in the same ministry: Assistant Minister for EU affairs, international and judicial cooperation, anticorruption and organisation of judiciary, Director General for criminal law, Advisor to the Minister. Before joining the ministry, he was a prosecutor.

He has extensive experience as the Justice Reform and Rule of Law expert in different international projects: as a Team Leader/Key Expert 1 of an EU project, Junior Project Leader of two more EU projects and as a judicial efficiency expert in various Council of Europe projects.

He is currently vice-president of the CoE Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ) and the Croatian Head of Delegation to the CoE Group of States against Corruption (GRECO).