

Georgina Scicluna

Director General responsible for the implementation of Cohesion and RRP Funds, Malta

Dr Georgina Scicluna began her career in the Public Service in 2012 as the Head of the European Regional Development Fund and the Cohesion Fund within the Planning and Priorities Coordination Division (PPCD). In 2023, she was appointed as Director General (PPCD) within the Office of the Prime Minister, which oversees European Funds, Equality, Reforms, and Social Dialogue. Her professional background includes practising within a private legal firm in Malta and her engagement with the European Institutions as a Lawyer Linguist with the European Court of Justice and as a translator with the European Parliament in Luxembourg.

Georgina obtained her Law Degree from the University of Malta in 1997, followed by a Master's Degree in Translation and Interpreting in 2005.